

nMessage from the President

Dear Friend:

At the Seminary our goal is to accept all students where they are, both spiritually and academically, with the prayer that God will richly bless each student through these classes.

Tuition is $65.00 per credit hour. There is a Registration Fee of $40.00 for all students. If you do not wish to receive academic credit for classes, you are welcome to simply audit (attend) these classes, for your own spiritual enrichment, at no tuition charge or credit.

However, we do encourage you to take these classes for credit and earn your Associate's, Bachelor's or Master's Degree, so that you may better serve the Lord as a Christian Counselor, Chaplain, Teacher or Pastor. Please permit us to help you accomplish your goals for the Ministry of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

You may pre-register now, by calling the Seminary at (253) 472-4322 and we'll answer any questions that you may have regarding these classes.

We thank the Lord for this wonderful opportunity to serve you, as you seek to know Him better, through the study of God's eternal Word, the Bible.

Yours in His uplifting love,

Dr. Merritt E. Lawson, Jr.

All Classes meet one (1) night a week, from 6:00-9:00 p.m. for ten (10) weeks; beginning January 8th, 2018 – March 16th, 2018.

Monday, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

The Art of Biblical Counseling (3 Credits):

This class is about how to help emotionally troubled people and designed to present what emotional illness is and how it may be treated successfully through "logo therapy", with Christian fellowship and prayer. The Art of Biblical Counseling, by trained pastors, chaplains and lay persons in ministry is where many of our students find the Lord using them to help others in their ministry.

Instructor: Prof. Michael Shoemaker, B.A., M.A., M.Div., M.Th., D.Min.

-or-

Monday, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Dogmatics I -God (3 Credits):

This is a wonderful study of the nature and attributes of God and includes the Scriptural teachings regarding the doctrines of the Trinity, the Creation and the Fall into Sin by Angels and all Mankind. This is an eye opening study of the Grace of God toward Fallen Mankind, offering Salvation and Eternal Life to all who come to know Him through faith in the Lord, Jesus Christ. You will be blessed by this class.

Instructor: Prof. John B. Merz, B.Sci., M.B.A., M.B.S. M.Div.

Tuesday, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

The Art of Evangelism (3 Credits):

This is an exciting study of how to share your faith with those who do not know Christ Jesus personally. You will learn how to overcome your fears in witnessing for Him. You will be blessed by this class as you minister the Gospel to others. "He that winneth souls is wise" (Pr. 11:30).

Instructor: Prof. Donald G. Tilley, Jr., B.Sci., M.A., M.Div.

-or-

Tuesday, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

The Gospel of John: Part II (3 Credits):

This class offers an in-depth study of the Gospel of John with emphasis on the deity of Jesus Christ and His love for all people. This class will be a verse-by-verse devotional study that you will treasure for years to come. We will study chapters 11-21. We hope that you will bring your Bible and a friend with you to class. See you there.

Instructor: Prof. Floyd A. Dugger, B.Sci., M.Div.

The Association for Biblical Higher Education (Formerly: The Accrediting Association for Bible Colleges) has granted Affiliate Status to Covenant Bible Seminary. The Association has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952. The Seminary participates in and contributes to collegial and professional development activities of the Association. Affiliate status does not, however, constitute, imply or presume ABHE accredited status at present or in the future. There are over one-hundred-eighty (180) colleges, universities and seminaries in the Association. www.abhe.org

Welcome to the Winter Quarter 2018

For more information call: (253) 472-4322.

Note: There are NO PREREQUISITES for any of these classes.

New Testament Introduction II (3 Credits):

This class is a survey of the New Testament including: historical background; authorship; date written; the purpose of each book; how they became a part of the New Testament. We will see that the New Testament is God's final revelation to man and how it presents the fulfillments of all Old Testament prophecy; the last recorded words and works of Christ on earth; growth of Christ's Church; prophecies for the last days and clear statements regarding Christian faith, daily living and doctrine. You will be blessed as you study these final Words from God.

Instructor: Prof. Stephen B. Crabtree, B.A., M.Div.

-or-

Wednesday, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Selected Psalms I (3 Credits):

This class presents a general introduction to the Psalms with an exposition of a number of selected Psalms. This will be an exciting study as we see how David glorified the Lord, in the Psalms, even while his enemies were trying to kill him. This study will give you a deeper understanding of prayer and will strengthen your own prayer life and encourage you to pray to the Lord, about everything. Come and be encouraged and bring a friend with you to this class.

Instructor: Prof. Douglas Stewart, B.A., M.Sci. M.Div., D.Min.

Covenant Bible Seminary is an interdenominational Bible college and graduate school for Christian education of Covenant Bible Fellowship, Inc., which is a Washington non-profit corporation with the purpose of: "establishing and operating churches, missions, seminaries of religious learning, Bible schools and colleges, for the study of the Scriptures, in the United States of America and abroad". This corporation was recognized, "Approved and Filed February 14, 1946" by the Secretary of State of the State of Washington and granted Affiliate Membership with The Fellowship of Churches and Ministers International. www.covenantbibleseminary.org

Thursday, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Christian Apologetics (3 Credits):

The purpose of this class is designed to help you interact with the most skeptical atheist, agnostic or adherent to another religion with knowledge and confidence. The term "Apologetics" involves the defense of the Christian faith from attacks against the Bible and Jesus Christ. Christianity is being attacked today and this class will show you how to defend your faith against those who think the Bible is not true. However, be warned, your faith will be exercised and just as with any exercise, no pain, no gain! Bring a friend to this class with you. We look forward to seeing you.

Instructor: Prof. Christopher V. Kimball, B.A., M.Sci, M.Div.

The Art of Preaching (3 Credits):

Have you ever felt God's Call in your life to preach His Word? This class is designed to teach you HOW TO PREPARE SERMONS AND HOW TO PREACH THEM EFFECTIVELY. We will cover: method, composition and delivery of sermons, in this class. This is an exciting class and even experienced preachers are helped by it. Don't miss this class if God has Called you to preach and teach His Holy Word. The Apostle Peter wrote: "In the last days, God says: I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy/preach"(Acts 2:17). If speaking in public frightens you, this class is guaranteed to give you confidence, as you speak for Jesus, our Lord and Savior.

Instructor: Prof. Danny E. Holcomb, B.A., M.Div.

INDEPENDENT STUDY AT HOME:

The Seminary also offers 127 three (3) credit classes that you may choose to study at home for your Bachelor's or Master's Degree in Bible, Christian Counseling, Chaplaincy or Parish Administration. Tuition is the same as Resident Study and there is no time limit. We will help you plan your Program for Graduation. Give us a Call at (253) 472-4322.

We encourage you to listen daily to God's Word on your radio at 91.7 F.M. or over the Internet at www.bbnradio.org. The Seminary partners with the Bible Broadcasting Network.
